

LOCAL POLICIES & EXHIBITOR PHOTO/VIDEO RELEASE

SONOMA COUNTY FAIR PROTEST POLICY:

Prior to filing a protest, secure a copy of the current State Rules for California Fairs, California Department of Food and Agriculture, Divisions of Fairs and Expositions from the Entry Office of the SONOMA COUNTY FAIR. State Rule V, outlines the procedure that must be followed in filing a protest. This booklet may also be obtained from Division of Fairs and Expositions, 1220 N Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, or telephone (916) 900-5026.

1. The Competitive Exhibits, Agriculture & Educational Committee of the Sonoma County Fair & Exhibition will represent the Board in competitive exhibit protest matters. When the protest situation is not time sensitive, staff will call a committee meeting based on public meeting requirements per the Brown Act.
2. It is understood that protests are often time sensitive and action needs to be taken immediately. In anticipation of the potential for immediate resolution; no later than the annual August board meeting, the Fair Board President will appoint an ad-hoc Competitive Exhibits Protest Committee that will be given the authority to make timely decisions related to competitive exhibits on behalf of the Fair Board. It has been determined that:
 - a) Members of the ad-hoc committee will consist of the Chair and two members of the Competitive Exhibits, Agriculture and Educational Committee of the Fair Board;
 - b) the Fair Manager and Interim Exhibits Coordinator will be ex-officio members of this ad-hoc committee;
 - c) their official term will be from the date they are appointed until the next regular Fair board meeting;
 - d) this committee will make all decisions related to official protests that are of immediate nature and cannot be heard at a regular committee or board meeting;
 - e) if requested by fair management, will also be tasked with actions related to non-official protests and alleged rule violations, including drug policy violations;
 - f) any action taken by this ad-hoc committee will be reported at the next regular meeting of the Competitive Exhibits, Agriculture and Educational Committee and the Fair Board
3. Decisions by committee may be appealed to the Board of Directors at the next regular meeting. Final appeal lies with the Division of Fairs and Expositions. If no appeal takes place, the the actions taken by the committee are final.
4. The Sonoma County Fair and Exhibition will notify Fairs and Expositions of their action on the matter in writing following their decision
5. The person filing the protest and exhibitors named in the protest will be notified in writing as to whether the protest is approved or denied.
6. Exhibitors named in a protest can request a copy of the official protest filed against them, and the name of the individual(s) who filed the protest.

EXHIBITOR'S RIGHT TO PRIVACY:

When action on a rule violation has been taken by fair management or the ad hoc Competitive Exhibits Action Committee, the identity of the exhibitor (including minors) will not be disclosed publicly. However if the matter is appealed to the Board level by an official protest or appeal of protest, then exhibitors involved (including minors) may have their name disclosed, as documentation of official proceedings automatically become public record.

By signing the entry form, exhibitors agree to the following release:

I hereby authorize the Sonoma County Farm Bureau, the County of Sonoma and all its departments, agencies, commissions and special districts and their employees ("the County of Sonoma"), to publish the photographs and/or videos taken of any exhibitor or minor exhibitor, on whose behalf I am signing, and to use said minor(s)' names in the County's printed publications, websites, social media channels and other similar media.

I acknowledge that since my participation [or my child(s)' participation] in publications and websites produced by the Sonoma County Farm Bureau and the County of Sonoma is voluntary, I hereby agree not to make any claim for compensation for the use of my [or my child(s)] image and/or voice and/or words. I further agree that my participation [or my child(s)' participation] in any publication and website produced by the County of Sonoma confers upon me no rights of ownership whatsoever.

On behalf of myself and my child/children, I agree to release and hold harmless the Sonoma County Farm Bureau and the County of Sonoma, its contractors and its employees from liability for any claims by me or on behalf of my child/children or any third party, arising out of or in connection with the foregoing, and waive any right to inspect or approve the same.

I have read this minor Child Photo Release Form and voluntarily accept the terms and conditions set forth herein. I hereby certify that I am the parent or guardian of the minor child/children named below, and I have the legal authority to execute this release on behalf of the child/children.

- ALL CHECKS must be cashed within 6 months after close of the Fair.
 - Checks will be issued payable under the name filled out on the entry form.
 - Fair will re-issue checks for a $20 service charge.
 - Premium ribbons, tags, or cards have no value as to payment. Only the official placing on the judging sheet constitutes the final placement.

EXHIBITORS MEETINGS

- 27) The Sonoma County Fair endeavors to put together a quality county fair. This is not possible without the help and cooperation of our exhibitors. Therefore we appreciate your comments and invite you to have input into what is developed. Check specific departments in guidebook for times.

SUBSTITUTIONS: STATE RULE II.5

- 28) Substitutions can only be made within a division. Substitutions must be made when the exhibit arrives at the fairgrounds, or for livestock, when registration certificates are checked. In the livestock department a minimum $5.00 penalty must be paid prior to judging for each substitution made by the exhibitor in excess of 2 in the division.

LIVESTOCK SHOWING:

- 29) All persons showing in the Adult Department Livestock Classes must wear clean attire and be appropriately dressed.
- 30) All junior exhibitors must wear the uniform of their organization or white if an independent junior. See Junior Livestock Department Show Dress for specific guidelines.

CODE OF EXCELLENCE:

- 31) All junior exhibitors must sign/authorize an Exhibitors Code of Excellence and have it on file to exhibit livestock.

LOCAL RULES

LIVESTOCK – GENERAL

- 32) JUNIOR LIVESTOCK To be eligible to show livestock at the Sonoma County Fair, junior exhibitors are required to complete a mandatory Quality Assurance and Ethics training at the fairgrounds once prior to the age of 14 and once after. Specifically:
- Any junior livestock* exhibitor that has reached age 9 (excluding primary members) that has not attended the mandatory Quality Assurance & Ethics training must attend.
 - Any junior livestock exhibitor aged 14 (as of January 1) that intends to exhibit livestock at the fair must attend. (This will function as a refresher course for high school aged exhibitors.)
 - Leaders and advisors must attend training once every three years.
 - *Note: Livestock includes all species (Beef, Sheep, Swine, Goat, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goat, Rabbit, Cavy, Poultry, Pygmy Goat, Horse, Dog)
- 33) OPEN LIVESTOCK Breed divisions within a specie will be determined by the Fair and will strive to maintain a 30 head and 3 exhibitor minimum per breed.
- An animal exhibited and shown in the Senior Department is not eligible to be exhibited and shown in the Junior Department, and vice-versa, unless it allows participation in a sponsored featured breed show.
- 34) ALL REGISTERED ANIMALS (except horses, or market and feeder animals) must be identified by a permanent identification as required by the breed association, on the animal and recorded on the entry form, prior to entering the fairgrounds. To qualify for entry and judging, the following information must be provided on the entry form by the closing date of entry:
- Identification of each animal at least by dam, birthdate and ear tag, notching, or tattoo photo or drawing; or by the registration number.
 - Registration number of the sire for get of sire entries.
 - Registration number of the dam for produce of dam entries.
 - If above information is completed after close of entry, a $5 penalty fee per entry will be required by the fair prior to judging to qualify for judging.
- 35) ALL POULTRY AND RABBITS must be identified by a leg band/tattoo prior to entering the fairgrounds.

- 36) OWNERSHIP Junior Livestock projects must be owned by and under the exhibitor's management as specified below. The official ownership date is the date shown on the receipt of sale unless the animal was bred by the exhibitor.
- Market Animals: beef – 120 consecutive days; and swine, sheep, and goats 60 consecutive days.
 - Breeding/feeder animals: 30 consecutive days.
 - All small market animals (rabbits & poultry): 30 consecutive days.
 - All horses: leased or owned 120 consecutive days.
 - Junior livestock and horse projects must be owned (or leased for horses) by and under the exhibitor's care and management, as per State Rules "Livestock and Horse Exhibits – Ownership".
 - All market animals are required to have their DNA collected. The collection is the responsibility of the exhibitor and their parent or leader. Information is available in the Entry Office regarding the collection process and deadlines. No late samples will be taken, no exceptions. Failure to submit samples by the deadline will result in the entry/animal being disqualified from the show.
 - No junior exhibitor may exhibit a market animal which has been sold as a market animal through a fair junior livestock auction whether or not there was an actual change of ownership.
 - Livestock shown in showmanship must be owned (or leased for horses) by the exhibitor and shown in an appropriate market, breeding, or performance class.
 - Exhibitor must own grade animals, including replacement heifers, at least 30 days prior to opening day of the Fair. Animals must be identified by permanent marking (tattoo, brand, or ear tag) on the animal and recorded on the entry form prior to entering fairgrounds.
- 37) REGISTRATION PAPERS Should be checked before Fair time to avoid confusion and save time. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to insure that all appropriate paperwork is checked by fair personnel prior to showing animals. Papers must be checked before show starts. If not, animals will not be allowed to be shown in their appropriate class. Fair management reserves the right to re-inspect registration/ownership papers upon request. Failure to provide any necessary paperwork in a timely manner will result in disqualification. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to keep all necessary papers in their possession while animals are on exhibit.
- 38) ARRIVAL Upon arrival report to the Livestock Office for instructions and assignment of stalls or pens. Once assigned, no change will be permitted.
- 39) STALLS & BEDDING Fair will not provide first bedding. No shavings allowed except market lambs and goats. No other bedding is permitted other than straw or shavings (market lambs/goats only).
- Stall requests will be taken but Fair reserves the right to assign actual livestock location in the barns.
 - When all pens and stalls in the livestock area and cages in the Poultry Building are filled, no more entries will be accepted.
 - Any animals that do not meet the requirements of the division or rules of the Fair will not be allowed to be shown in their appropriate class. Ineligible and sifted livestock may be shown in their appropriate showmanship classes only, with the exception of vet sifts.
 - Muzzling of any animal is prohibited.

40) Exhibitor Tack Areas

- a) Exhibitors must only groom animals within their designated species barn area. (i.e. - Lambs/Goats must only be groomed in the Lamb/Goat barn only.)
- b) Use of pop-up tents inside or around the livestock barn is prohibited. Special permission for any shade canopies must be obtained from the livestock superintendent.

LIVESTOCK HEALTH INSPECTION

41) A health check will be conducted for each species of livestock entered.

- a) It will be the responsibility of a licensed veterinarian or veterinary student to check all animals on exhibit at the Fair for obvious health problems. This includes any health certificates, signs of communicable disease, external parasites, unsightly disease conditions, and any wounds, open or closed, that may be contagious. The veterinarian shall have the right to enter a vehicle, trailer, pen or tie area to inspect an animal.
- b) Specific health conditions that may warrant dismissal are:
 - i) Active ringworm (lesions are considered active until skin is normal), warts, soremouth, scours or dysentery, pinkeye, lice, mites, footrot, pneumonia, and abscesses which are balding, showing hair separation, open, draining or still scabbed. Animals having surgical sites resulting from abscess removal are unacceptable if they have sutures (stitches), scabs, or are draining. In addition, any animal found to be in an unsafe or unsightly condition (i.e. prolapse), are in distress or are injured will be dismissed from the grounds.
 - ii) All the above conditions shall be evaluated by a fair contracted veterinarian, veterinarian student, and or veterinarian technician. Veterinarian students and technicians can quarantine an animal suspect of a health condition, as outlined above, until a veterinarian can evaluate the animal and make the final determination for dismissal.
 - iii) Animals that do not pass the vet check will be scratched and sent home, no substitutions may be used.
 - iv) The Veterinarian's decision shall be final.
 - v) The owner will be issued a release and shall be responsible to remove any animal dismissed by the veterinarian from the fairgrounds as soon as possible. In addition, owner is responsible for the expense of any follow-up tests, supplies or treatment.
 - vi) No quarantine or isolation area will be available on the fairgrounds to house dismissed animals.
 - vii) If an animal is dismissed from the fairgrounds, the exhibitor will not be entitled to a refund of the entry fee.
 - viii) Each health check will take place during the arrival times as listed in the guidebook. Since arrival times vary in length from specie to specie, a veterinarian shall be on hand to check animals during unloading.
*Permission to arrive early must be granted by the Livestock Superintendent.
 - ix) At any point while an animal is on exhibit at the fair, if that animal contracts an ailment or shows signs of disease, it will be re-evaluated by the attending veterinarian and appropriate action will be taken. This may include dismissal from the fair.
 - x) Exhibitors should report any suspected contagious condition observed on any animal and notify the Livestock Superintendent of any unethical incidents that occur which are not in the best interest of the animal's welfare.

- xi) The exhibitor shall notify Livestock Superintendent if a private veterinarian treats any of their animals while on the fairgrounds.
 - xii) The Sonoma County Fair Directors and staff shall not be held liable for any illness, loss, or damage which may occur to an animal while at the fairgrounds. Exhibitors should note that exposure to disease is a risk associated with showing animals at fairs and only upon this understanding are entries accepted.
 - xiii) If an animal is not present during the vet check, that animal will be scratched from the show.
 - xiv) If there are any questions as to an animal's condition, it is advisable to leave it home or consult your own veterinarian.
- c) The Veterinarian is not responsible for treating exhibitor's livestock while on fairgrounds.
- 42) The Sonoma County Fair Board of Directors has approved a drug residue policy for market steers, lambs, goats and hogs (adopted March 2013). Please see the Junior Livestock Auction Rules for more information.

TRAILERS & CAMPERS

- 43) Applications for RV trailer spaces may be obtained from the Fair Administration Office. The Entry Department does not manage the trailer park.

GOLF CARTS

- 44) Any motorized vehicle (golf carts, etc.) must be approved and registered through the administration office and receive a permit.
- a) Permit fee for approved applications is $100.00.
 - b) Applications and information on who is eligible is available in the Entry Office.

FREE TRAM RIDE

- 45) For your convenience, a tram and tractor will run from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. through the livestock area, picking up and letting off at Gate 7. The following rules will be enforced by the tram driver and fair management:
- a) Disorderly conduct will not be tolerated.
 - b) No standing on the tram.
 - c) Only youngsters will be permitted to sit on an adult's lap.
 - d) No wheelchairs or strollers will be permitted on the tram.
 - e) Loading and unloading of passengers are to be when the tram is at a full stop.
 - f) Management has the right to forfeit riding privileges.

VEHICLE AND PEDESTRIAN ACCESS

- 46) Exhibitors and parents with passes and car stickers for the Livestock Department will enter and leave the grounds through the Livestock Gate, Gate 7 on Aston Ave.
- a) This Gate may be used to drive on the grounds for feed deliveries, etc. from 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. for those with proper credentials.
 - b) Pedestrian traffic will be restricted, no re-entry privileges after 9:00 p.m. daily.
 - c) Any violators of credential rules will be towed away at their expense. Vehicles with these passes should not be left unattended.

LIVESTOCK RELEASES

- 47) Prior to the departure time, releases will be issued by the livestock office and MUST be presented at Gate 7 before vehicles will be allowed to enter to load tack or livestock.
- Exhibitors will be assigned their release time at the exhibitor meeting. Release slips will be time stamped and routes will be posted for entrance and exit.
 - Departure time will be assigned based on the distance exhibitor resides from the fairgrounds and the number of animals that are on exhibit.
 - On release day, each exhibitor must have a livestock/tack release BEFORE their vehicle will be allowed to enter the fairgrounds. Please check the release time and arrange for the driver to have this necessary paperwork. We need to enforce this control system, and it works well when you remember to get the release in advance!
