There's something for everyone at the Sonoma County Fair

An Abundance of Talent with Every Performance

SANTA ROSA, CA – July 26, 2017 – Dance in the park or in the streets to free music played nearly all day every day at the Sonoma County Fair. It's the perfect place to have quality family time with magic shows, thrilling acts and hysterical comedies to see. Anyone can come be a part of the daily parade or the youngsters can put on a "Holiday Adventures!" show. Fairgoers won't be disappointed with the variety of entertainment. There really is something for everyone at the Sonoma County Fair.

Show off talents by taking center stage in this year's contests. Blow the largest bubble, build a scarecrow, and make a milk moustache and more. All contests are free with Fair admission, and everyone gets a ribbon.

Whether wind up or wind down; Park Stage has everything from rock to country to jazz to blues playing all day throughout the fair. All headline concerts and daily live music is free with Fair admission. Pair cultural music with delicious food, shopping and more in Mexican Village; get on the dance floor at Park Stage from 1:30 pm to 9:00 pm, or relax at Brews and Blues is the hottest spot to be with a full bar and lively jazz music that will help ease into the night. Each day brings something new for everyone to enjoy.

There are many hysterical entertainment shows around the grounds. Watch a small-scale magic show that is perfect for the whole family, but be sure to keep all eyes on Godfrey the Magician as he adds some special 'holiday' touches to his tricks.

No worries about the heat, Acrobuffo will cool the Fair down with a playful water balloon gladiator show including comic antics, flying water balloons, and loud opera music. This show is fun for all ages – especially those in need of a refreshing cool down. Follow the sounds of loud music and equally loud laughter to find Water Bomb.
